3. To provide a program for entering students (freshmen) to begin their college work during the summer;

4. To institute special workshops and projects varying according to demands of all of the interested and qualified persons concerned;

5. To serve as a community college for all persons who are qualified to attend and are able to receive benefits from college experience.

The summer quarter is organized into three sessions: a quarter of eleven weeks, offering regular college courses; an eight-week session featuring several types of workshops; and a four-week session providing special short courses for in-service teachers.

3. Courses are offered for special trade students who are primarily concerned with vocations.

5. An adult education program is provided for qualified persons not interested in completing degree requirements.

6. The College will offer during the summer quarter any course that is listed in the regular bulletin upon sufficient demand.

7. A rich program of concerts, recitals, lectures, plays and educational tours is planned for the students who enroll at this college for the summer quarter.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

Savannah State's 136-acre campus, dotted by beautiful moss-laden trees, accommodates 28 buildings. Among the more outstanding are the attractively designed and modernly constructed Camilla Hubert Hall, which accommodates 175 women; Adams Hall, the dining hall which serves approximately 500 students in a family atmosphere; Meldrim Hall, which comprises administrative offices, the auditorium, and some classrooms; Willcox Gymnasium, which is the headquarters for the Physical Education Department; the College Post Office—a branch of the Savannah Post Office—which provides regular mail service for the entire College community; the Fine Arts Building, comprising a band room, chorus room and classrooms for the fine arts; the 18-bed infirmary, staffed by a college physician and a full-time nurse; the College Center, which houses a cafeteria, book store, snack bar, and recreational facilities; and a newly constructed laundry (White Hall) which serves the needs of the College family at a minimum rate.

the central heating plant; Wright Hall, Men's Dormitory; and Wiley gymnasium, an annex to the Willcox gymnasium. The heating plant, powered by three individual automatic oil burning units of 575 horsepower, generates heat to meet the needs of the entire campus. The new dormitory is an ultra modern, fireproof structure which comfortably houses 210 men. The annex to Willcox gymnasium has all the modern facilities required for an adequate health and physical education program. The building contains individual lockers, private and public showers, women's lounges, sick bay and complete service units for men and women.

THE LIBRARY

The College Library affords an opportunity for students and faculty to have access to publications needed in their varied activities. The library collection now numbers more than 23,000 bound volumes; 293 periodicals and 23 newspapers. Microfilm copies of the Savannah Morning News, the New York Times and the London Times are available. So that the student will have an opportunity to utilize all the media of communication in his work, the library maintains a collection of films, filmstrips and recordings covering Methods of Teaching, Child Development and many of the varied subject fields. These aids are housed in the College A-V Center and administered by the Director.

The Library also maintains a small basic collection in each of the dormitories. These collections include magazines, newspapers, encyclopedias and a few general works.

A discussion group which reviews books and promotes recreational reading is part of the library program. In order to encourage greater use of the books and facilities of the library, both class instruction and on-the-spot aid are given to all students.

WORK AID

Students who are worthy and industrious may meet some of their expenses through part-time employment provided they maintain high standards of work and satisfactory scholastic averages. Most of these jobs are on the campus, but placement is made also in the City of Savannah and its environs. Applicants for work should secure blanks from the Student Personnel Office. Students are assigned to work only after they have been admitted and have arrived on the campus. Work assignments are made in the Office of the Director of Student Personnel.

LIVING ARRANGEMENTS

Accommodations for one hundred and seventy-five women are available in Camilla Hubert Hall. Activities are supervised by the Dean of Women and the dormitory head resident.

A new men's dormitory provides accommodations for two hundred and ten men. Dormitory life for men is under the direction of the Dean of Men and the head resident.

through dormitory clubs in each resident hall.

RELIGIOUS LIFE

The campus community is enriched by a religious life program under the supervision of an ordained minister. This program includes Sunday School, conducted jointly by the students and faculty, and a formal worship hour with a choir and clergy. Recognized ministers of Savannah and environs often serve as guest ministers.

Personal religious counseling is available and pastoral care is a continuing service for the College community, irrespective of denominational affiliations.

RECREATIONAL AND SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Many activities supplement formal education at Savannah State College. In addition to the regular religious and various cultural opportunities provided through assemblies, and the lecture and lyceum series, there are many extra-class activities, such as: orchestra, glee club, quartets, choir, student papers, sponsored by classes, clubs, Student Council, special interest groups and the Student Personnel Department.

Informal socials are held regularly in the vide many pleasant hours of recreation.

A special feature of the Summer Quarter is Play Day, which provides an opportunity for all students to take part in a period of play and recreation. Hobby groups and special interest groups give students opportunity to develop skills and interests outside the classroom.

INFORMATION FOR VETERANS

All the curricula of Savannah State College, including the one for special trade students, are fully approved for Korean veterans as well as for veterans of World War II.
